ATR VERDICT: In a moderate contest the marginal preference is for FIRST EXCEL, who is a three-time C&D winner and he put in a promising performance here a month ago. Deevios Beau hit the crossbar over this trip at Newcastle last time and he should be in the mix once again today. Others who merit consideration are Burning Sun, Tyche and Kommander Kirkup.

ATR VERDICT: SACKETT bounced back from a trio of pulled up efforts with a victory at Fakenham last month and the 10-year-old appears to have been found an excellent opportunity with all of his rivals having a point to prove. Legend Of Zorro may benefit from a change of scenery as he makes his first start since December, while Finalshot is more reliable to finish third than Black Buble as the latter virtually refused to race at Uttoxeter on Thursday.

ATR VERDICT: COQOLINO might not be on a bad mark here for his handicap debut and Jordan Gainford further aids his chances by claiming a valuable 7lb off his back. The French-bred had a big reputation when making his 'track' debut at Gowran last season but had the misfortune to bump into Bob Olinger. He took a while to find his feet over hurdles but was a good winner at Navan last month and stepping up in trip again now should be a help. No Grey Area's got a 14lb hike for winning impressively at Gowran last time and it will be interesting to see if he can maintain his progression. De Name Escapes Me was last seen finishing third in a very strong handicap won by Flooring Porter at Navan in December. Off the same mark, he has to be given serious consideration.

Diva's Mix was placed in an all-weather bumper at Lingfield in January and could give the selection most to think about, though any money for Olly Murphy's newcomer, Tigerbythetail, would also be worth noting.

ATR VERDICT: VEILED SECRET is having his first run for a new yard and on the back of a close-up second at Market Rasen last October, connections have clearly waited for this better ground and it could be significant that they've booked Sam Twiston-Davies. Hold Me Tight has been knocking on the door of late and wouldn't be winning out of turn, while Grand Coureur makes some appeal too.

ATR VERDICT: Connections have had to wait a while to get LARGY FIX on to the racecourse but he looks an exciting prospect. The Notnowcato gelding won a point-to-point at Loughanmore back in May 2019 before going through the sales ring for 170,000 pounds. He beat The Bosses Oscar that day and that horse has gone on to prove a smart sort, most recently finishing second in the Pertemps final at Cheltenham. Perfect Attitude has already been placed in a couple of bumpers and, with Jordan Gainford taking 7lb off his back here, he could prove a danger. Given Wings ran on well to finish second on his debut, over hurdles, at Leopardstown last month and with natural improvement could play a part now.

ATR VERDICT: Just two in this with previous experience and the Willie Mullins-trained DARK RAVEN would appear the one to beat. He ran out a good winner on his debut at Leopardstown last month and the fact that he doesn't have to carry a penalty in this looks a big plus for his chances. Zero Tolerance was second on his debut at Tipperary in a point-to-point bumper when chasing home impressive winner Au Fleuron. He is entitled to come on from that outing and Pat Taaffe takes a useful 7lb off his back. Pats Choice looks an obvious newcomer to note in the market. The Denise Foster-trained Getaway gelding cost 170,000 euros and is from the family of Egypt Mill Prince.
