ATR VERDICT: Old Jewry has to be given plenty of respect having been successful over C&D a couple of weeks ago but the preference is for DONLADD. The seven-year-old remains unexposed over hurdles and his pair of second-placed finishes earlier in the year suggest that he can win a race of this nature. Shaws Bridge edges out Ace Ventura to be the pick of the remainder.

Top Tip: DONLADD (4)

ATR VERDICT: A low draw is an advantage here and so preference is for MARSHAL DAN, who is only 4lb higher than when winning over C&D two starts ago. The six-year-old can go well fresh, having finished second on his last two seasonal returns, and he should not be underestimated. Stone Soldier is likely to be popular given his all-weather form over the winter but stall 10 is a concern, while Molls Memory and Ejtlaab are others to note.

Top Tip: MARSHAL DAN (5)

Watch out for: STONE SOLDIER (4)

ATR VERDICT: VISION DU PUY finally delivered the goods when gaining her first victory for almost two years at Stratford last month and a 5lb rise appears to be fair for Dan Skelton's mare. Shantou Express was just denied at Wetherby on his latest start and commands plenty of respect on his handicap debut, while a pair of cheekpieces might aid the cause of Dino Velvet.

ATR VERDICT: All of these have claims but a chance can be taken with VENTURA MUTINY, who improved with every start as a two-year-old. He got off the mark over 7f here when last seen in June and all three of the rivals he beat that day won on their next outing, which suggests that a mark of 79 may underestimate this son of Showcasing. Forest Falcon was an impressive nine-length winner on his most recent start at Yarmouth in September and he cannot be discounted. The shortlist is completed by Tornadic and Colonel Faulkner.
