ATR VERDICT: OUR NEW BUDDY ran better than bare form suggests, when posting a fourth-placed effort at Epsom last month. The three-year-old remains unexposed in handicaps and should relish this longer trip, hailing from a stamina based family. Yagood has been in a rich vein of form, but will need to improve again now upped in class. Gentleman At Arms displayed some promise at Kempton when last seen and is not to underestimated now back on the turf.

Top Tip: OUR NEW BUDDY (11)

Watch out for: YAGOOD (3)

5 (1)		03-1363	SPRING GLOW 32 CD gr f Mukhadram - Spring Dream	4 8 - 8	Hayley Turner A M Balding	66

ATR VERDICT: MIDRARR readily dismissed her rivals at this venue on her latest outing, drawing clear to win by almost four lengths. The drop back in trip shouldn't pose an issue and the daughter of Dubawi can record successive victories. Trinity Girl must be respected on the hunt for a hat-trick of wins, although this demands considerably more with an added penalty. Greengage also merits consideration.

Top Tip: MIDRARR (2)

Watch out for: TRINITY GIRL (4)

ATR VERDICT: In a competitive affair marginal preference is for MOTAGALLY, who has been edging in the right direction on his two outings this campaign. The son of Swiss Spirit was no match for the winner at Beverley last time out but, considering he was sandwiched between two subsequent winners, he rates the one to beat. Tarboosh is capable on his day and must be respected, while Dubai Station completes the shortlist.

Top Tip: MOTAGALLY (5)

ATR VERDICT: KYLLINGA finished fourth on her latest outing in handicap company at Brighton and Sir Mark Todd's filly could step forward with the application of first-time blinkers to aid her cause. Thunderoad placed in a similar contest at Bath last month and she must enter calculations, along with Loch Long, who went close at Newcastle recently. Hugosthere cannot be ruled out either.

ATR VERDICT: BELLEVARDE arrives in good form having won at Windsor last time out and remains on a workable mark. The C&D-winning mare has a respectable record at this venue and gets the vote to land the spoils. Boudica Bay showed a gritty attitude to fend off her rivals last time out and she demands plenty of respect on the hunt for a hat-trick of wins. The handicapper has loosened his grip on Latin Five and he completes the shortlist.

Top Tip: BELLEVARDE (5)

Watch out for: BOUDICA BAY (6)

ATR VERDICT: An open handicap but the vote goes to LARGO BAY, who has been threatening to win a race of this nature, after some promising efforts this season. The son of Flintshire had excuses last time out at Wolverhampton and should appreciate the return to this distance. No Flies On Me recently recorded a career-best effort at Hamilton and could be the danger on her all-weather debut. Avorisk Et Perils and Boy George also warrant respect in this field.

Top Tip: LARGO BAY (8)

ATR VERDICT: ANGEL AMADEA made a pleasing start to life when posting a third-placed effort at Newmarket in June and can break her maiden tag here. Ensemble is likely to be on the premises if building on her seasonal bow for an in-form trainer. Moqadama could prefer this sharper test after fading late on at Ffos Las. Barshaa is also not to be discounted now fitted with a first-time tongue tie.

ATR VERDICT: Lucky Shake has been running consistently well, finishing third on her last four starts, but she may prove vulnerable against rivals who boast a less exposed profile. With that in mind, the vote goes to COTAI GREY, who is likely to step forward on what he has achieved to date following a gelding operation after his third start at Nottingham. Freyabella and Benzema appeal most of the remainder.

ATR VERDICT: IVASECRET appeared to enjoy the return to the all-weather when scoring over C&D on Saturday and the gelding makes plenty of appeal despite being turned out quickly under a 6lb penalty. Bowman returned to form when third at Ayr on his most recent start and he is likely to enter calculations along with Excel Power, who may benefit from being gelded.
