ATR VERDICT: FOSSOS could take some beating here if transferring his recent turf form to the Fibresand. With the step back up to 6f expected to suit, and the form of his last two races having been franked, he can get the better off Cometh The Man, who is still in search of his first win. First-time visored One For The Ladies is of interest cutting back in distance, while C&D winner Marve also makes the shortlist.

Top Tip: FOSSOS (9)

ATR VERDICT: STAR JEWEL has looked a filly right out of the top drawer on both starts thus far and a mark of 89 on handicap debut could greatly underestimate her. She can take this in her stride before going up in grade. Tomouh did the job in fine fashion at Lingfield back in June and her course form could be a big asset here as well, while Star Seeking could be suited by the drop in trip after her second over an extended mile at Nottingham.

ATR VERDICT: DUTY OF CARE was disappointing on his only outing so far in 2021 when only beating one rival home at Chelmsford in April. That said, the half-brother to Breeders' Cup Mile winner Expert Eye remains open to improvement on his turf debut and gets the vote to return to winning ways. Baby Alya finished second at Haydock on her latest outing and she is entitled to be in the mix along with Ready To Venture.

ATR VERDICT: VENTURA VISION has lacked something at the finish in each of her last two starts but, with her mark sliding and her trainer's excellent record at this track, she can gain a second victory of the season here. C&D winner Macmerry Jim is well capable on his day and will appreciate a return to this surface, while Elakazaam is also capable of being in the mix despite being winless in his last seven outings.

ATR VERDICT: He may be having his first run in 79 days, but KING VIKTOR is a standout here. He won three of his four starts earlier in the year, including a C&D victory in April, and back on a surface that clearly suits, he can land the spoils. Lord Torranaga has run well the last twice over further and he is entitled to respect. Sociologist and Scudamore are others to note.

ATR VERDICT: Wille Mullins' newcomer TASITEASAI gets the vote with the stable continuing to turn out bumper winners with great regularity. The four-year-old daughter of Sageburg is out of a mare who was runner-up in a Punchestown Festival bumper on debut before going on to win her next two starts in this sphere. Rocco Bay cost 20,000 euros at the Derby sale two years ago and, taken out of her intended debut because of soft ground, could be a danger if conditions are suitable. Kilbarry Chianti's debut third to subsequent winner Carrarea at Punchestown is the best piece of form amongst those with experience. She didn't match that when fifth at this venue last time but is probably better than that, and it's interesting that connections are happy to bring her back here. Ink And Rain showed notable improvement when third to a stablemate of the selection at Galway and can contend for minor honours along with the twice-placed No Reaction.
