ATR VERDICT: SHE'S IN THE GAME had Strange Times, Florence Thompson and Intervention all close up behind when beating all bar Ever Rock in a 23-runner handicap over this trip at the Curragh last Friday. The Bill Farrell-trained filly would certainly not be winning out of turn following a string of solid efforts this season, many when unfavoured by the draw, although the downside is she's gone up 13lb in the ratings. The forecast rain would certainly boost the chance of Myrcella, who has dropped down to an attractive mark, while others for the shortlist include King's View and Harry's Hill.

ATR VERDICT: TOUCHWOOD appreciated the return to 6f when winning a maiden at Nottingham late last month and it would be no surprise to see the consistent three-year-old add another victory to his record today. Endowed hit the crossbar over C&D a couple of weeks ago and is capable of going well once again this afternoon. A case can be made for all of the remainder but Media Blitz is arguably the pick of them.

ATR VERDICT: Dark Company went well over 10 furlongs at Yarmouth last time but hadn't been showing a great deal over this trip prior to that, so GODDESS OF FIRE gets the vote. John Ryan's filly was beaten less than a length in a Newmarket handicap over this trip last time and could be tough to beat in this. De Vegas Kid has been a standing dish at this track this season and could continue to produce some consistent performances.

ATR VERDICT: DABANA did little wrong when second at this course earlier in the month and might go one better. Having been ridden close to the pace over a mile, Dermot Weld's Iffraaj filly was collared inside the final furlong by a well-regarded newcomer and dropping to this trip might be no harm. The form of Cyclamen's fourth at Galway got a double boost when the first two home both won at Roscommon on Monday evening and she shouldn't be far away. Different Vibes shaped nicely on debut in a decent maiden at the Curragh and Cap De Joie was another to show potential first time out when fifth at Leopardstown, but a wide draw has done her no favours. Cynisca showed signs of greenness when fourth at Gowran and should be all the better for the experience, while Torn (who cost GBP80,000 as a yearling) and Cigamia, a full-sister to two useful winners, look the most interesting of the newcomers.

ATR VERDICT: First reserve Supreme Machine would have a big shout if getting a run. The form of her Cork victory is working out very well, and she is only up 5lb in the weights after her jockey's claim is factored in. If she doesn't participate, PLUM PERFECT is the selection. Her proven ability on deep ground will stand to her as plenty of rain is in the forecast for Naas. Izzy Clifton was seen to good effect steering her home over an extended mile at the Galway Festival. Plum Perfect kept on strongly to draw two and three-quarter lengths clear, which bodes well for this step up in trip. Loingseoir landed an apprentice handicap over this trip at Fairyhouse in May. The form of that race was franked when the runner-up scored at Roscommon during the week. Annalise Cullen gets on well with Loingseoir. Testing ground holds no fears for him. Dance Emperor and Gowran Park winner Stormy Jenn will be eyeing prize money.

ATR VERDICT: FAST RESPONSE won with more in hand than the official margin suggested at Musselburgh and Karl Burke's progressive filly may be good enough to land this contest too, with Pierre-Louis Jamin taking off a handy 5lb. Manettino appears the most immediate danger stepping back from 6f, while the penny finally dropped for Amazonian Dream when winning at Newbury and he demands respect off 6lb higher.

ATR VERDICT: A winner of four of his last five, including two at this track, it is hard to get away from CONTINGENCY FEE in this line-up. Up a further 5lb for a recent success at Newmarket, the Phil McEntee-trained gelding still looks as though he has plenty in hand over the handicapper. Dartington is winless since last June but has shown more than enough in recent starts to suggest his turn is near, while dual course winner Dawn View also enters calculations.

ATR VERDICT: Joseph O'Brien's COLLINS STREET looks to be a colt with a bright future. He took a Dundalk barrier trial in June and then was very professional in winning his maiden on soft ground at Leopardstown. He has a Group 3 entry for Leopardstown next month. Team Of Firsts got off the mark on heavy ground at Navan in March and should go well for Ger Lyons and Colin Keane. O'Brien also saddles Isle Of Sark and this 99-rated colt brings solid form to the party. His third in Navan got a massive boost when the winner went on to land a Group 3 in Goodwood. Rain-softened ground is an unknown, though. Tina Angelina was a comfortable winner on debut at Leopardstown and holds a Group 2 entry. If she handles slower ground, she would be a player. The sole four-year-old, Magic Chegaga, is having a terrific campaign but plenty of rain doesn't appear to be to her advantage. O'Brien's Max Mayhem isn't out of it.
