ATR VERDICT: BLACK GERRY took a big step forward on his second run over fences last time out, staying on for third in testing conditions at Chepstow. The Gary Moore-trained gelding has been dropped 1lb for that effort and looks poised to mount a bold bid for the in-form yard. En Coeur is the most experienced over fences in the contest and must be respected, while For Langy may be able to take a step forward.

ATR VERDICT: Although EL FELICIA has failed to fire this term, the Marco Botti-trained filly has shown plenty of promise and a mark of 62 may underestimate her ability. She gets the nod, while Midgetonamission has a good record at this venue and demands the utmost respect - although the handicapper may be in the driving seat at the minute. Salonica recorded a career-best speed figure last time out and also warrants interest.

Long Handicap: Who Is That 9 - 10

ATR VERDICT: In this competitive contest marginal preference is for MASTER MALCOLM, who showed a determined attitude to land the spoils over C&D last time out. Returning to the scene of the crime, the five-year-old may be able to continue his ascendancy off 4lb higher. Auld Sod has dropped to an appealing mark and must be respected, while Marettimo is another to consider.

ATR VERDICT: AFTER EIGHT has been knocking on the door of late, finding one rival too strong on each of his two outings, and this looks like the perfect opportunity to shed the maiden tag. The Andrew Balding-trained colt gets the nod to land the spoils, while Miss Messenger has shown glimpses of promise and rates the most immediate danger. Stormbreaker is another to consider.

ATR VERDICT: ISLAND RUN justified favouritism when winning his maiden over 1m7f at Wincanton in January and, starting life in handicap company off a fair mark of 107, he gets the vote to follow up. Royaume Uni wasn't disgraced in Grade 3 company at Newbury last time and he warrants plenty of respect now dropping back down in class, while C&D scorer Dreaming Blue shouldn't be too far away either.

ATR VERDICT: Despite having to defy a lengthy absence, CELESTIAL POINT was extremely progressive last term and gets the nod to hit the ground running with Rhys Clutterbuck claiming a handy 3lb. There are plenty of dangers, though, and if the filly fails to fire the consistent Mabre may be able to pick up the pieces. Hellavapace retains the ability to grab minor money.

ATR VERDICT: MAKE MY DAY gave 130-rated stablemate Jerrash plenty to think about over 2m3f here recently and that performance suggests that he is more than capable of winning a race of this nature. Jaramillo only found one too good at Newbury last time and he is likely to be in the shake-up again, while Gin Coco could be worth a second look in the betting market on his seasonal/stable debut.

ATR VERDICT: DEMBE has impressively notched a 7f double at Kempton and Wolverhampton and, with this step back up in trip unlikely to pose any problems, he is fancied to defy a further 4lb rise in the ratings. Unforgiving Minute brings seven course victories to the table and has a definite chance with James Doyle on his back, while Prince Rock also warrants respect off bottom-weight.

ATR VERDICT: Venetia Williams and Charlie Deutsch teamed up to win this race 12 months ago and that pair appear to have an excellent chance with ELEANOR BOB this time around. The seven-year-old will arrive full of confidence following recent victories at Chepstow and Huntingdon and a further 6lb rise in the ratings probably won't be enough to anchor her. Miss Jeanne Moon chased home the selection last time and might do so again, while Legends Ryde could potentially improve for the fitting of cheekpieces.

ATR VERDICT: KABOO looks to be getting better all the time, winning his last three starts with the minimum amount of fuss. He makes his first handicap appearance off a fair-looking mark of 95 in this and is difficult to oppose. Lucky Man is a consistent colt and won with plenty in hand at Southwell last time. He and recent Kempton scorer Golden Warrior should keep the selection honest at least.
