ATR VERDICT: UNANSWERED PRAYERS (fourth) was ahead of Hecouldbetheone (sixth) when the pair met at Ascot last month and the former, who boasts a stronger level of form, is taken to come out on top once again. The latter probably found conditions too soft on that occasion and is likely to get closer to the selection, while Super Duper Sam is capable of stepping forward from his second on his hurdling bow at Newbury, with the step up in trip potentially producing improvement.

Top Tip: UNANSWERED PRAYERS (2)

Long Handicap: Harry Hazard 9 - 13

ATR VERDICT: UBERMAN's sole outing over fences saw him get off the mark at Lingfield in December and the eight-year-old, who has since underperformed back over hurdles at Ffos Las, is taken to bounce back to form on his return to the larger obstacles. Ballinsker has been consistent on his last couple of starts and he commands respect along with Shake Him Up, who makes his chasing debut.

Top Tip: UBERMAN (4)

ATR VERDICT: With Donald McCain's horses in good form we could expect a big run from Bob's Bar, though he may have to settle for minor honours on his chasing debut. Ben Bromley gave Raffles Gitane a decent ride to win at Huntingdon and he could still go well off 7lb higher, but NEBUCHADNEZZAR might be the one. Unimpressive over further, he dropped back to two miles when winning at Wincanton and off 3lb higher, may be capable of a follow-up success.

Long Handicap: Modreeney 9 - 13

ATR VERDICT: HIGHSTAKESPLAYER returns to action quickly, a week on from a comfortable success at Southwell, and this could be a clever bit of placing by Tom Lacey. With Dylan Kitts' 10lb claim negating the 7lb penalty incurred for that victory, the six-year-old is fancied to get the better of the consistent Cry Wolf, who has been knocking on the door of late, as well as Checkitsme. Drash On Ruby is likely to improve for the step up in trip, being a full-sister to Grade 1 winner Dashed Drasher.

Top Tip: HIGHSTAKESPLAYER (1)

Watch out for: CRY WOLF (6)
