ATR VERDICT: Three-time Flat winner GENTLEMAN AT ARMS has taken to hurdling well and, though he hasn't been able to add to his tally after a wide-margin victory here on his second attempt, it would be no surprise if he was up to defying a penalty in this company. Having each shown debut bumper promise, Propelled and Ballaquane have failed to kick on over hurdles and both shape as being better chasing prospects.

Top Tip: GENTLEMAN AT ARMS (1)

Watch out for: PROPELLED (3)

ATR VERDICT: Joly Maker gained due reward for a string of placed efforts when scrambling home to score in the mud at Hereford last time but, as poor as this race is, he comes with risks attached off a 4lb higher mark considering he reportedly finished his last race distressed. With that in mind, fellow C&D winner RIZZARDO is preferred considering he is rated only 1lb higher than when winning at Fontwell earlier in the season and wasn't disgraced on ground more testing than ideal here last month. Of the remainder, Elkstone and Pakie's Dream are potentially well treated if able to recapture some spark.

Top Tip: RIZZARDO (1)

Watch out for: JOLY MAKER (3)

ATR VERDICT: POKER MASTER has looked a rejuvenated horse the past few weeks racking up two impressive wins, one of those over C&D, and the return to the minimum trip appears to have been the key. With regular pilot Tom Buckley taking off a further 5lb, he looks set to take all of the beating. Alan King was among the winners over the weekend and he is represented by Sword Beach, who has his first taste in handicap company. Systemic was still in with a shout when falling at Plumpton on his latest start and could be worth another chance.

Top Tip: POKER MASTER (3)

Watch out for: SWORD BEACH (2)
