ATR VERDICT: This can go the way of FINEST VIEW, who has gone close on both outings over hurdles and, with conditions in her favour here, the daughter of Passing Glance looks primed to strike for her in-form connections. Choral Work could not follow up her debut win for her new stable at Newcastle, but she is likely to enter the reckoning alongside Prime Time Lady, who has finished runner-up on both starts over hurdles.

ATR VERDICT: Irish raider Bronson In Blue looks an interesting contender in this field, dropping into novice company after winning a Leopardstown handicap, but may have to play second fiddle to WEST END LADY, who looks to hold strong claims now going up in trip. She is already a winner at this course and, with Lucinda Russell's yard continuing their good form, the mare can land the spoils. Cash To Ash returns to hurdling after a respectable seventh in the Eider Chase at Newcastle last time and he should not be discounted.

ATR VERDICT: BRIEF AMBITION may have only won a head-to-head over C&D last time out, but he did so with authority and Fergal O'Brien's charge looks well capable of maintaining his unbeaten record over fences. That may be at the main expense of Atholl Street, who looks to be crying out for this step up in trip, and Muckamore, who was no match for an in-form rival at Huntingdon earlier in the month.

ATR VERDICT: FOLLOW YOUR ARROW finished with plenty of conviction when third here last time out and the son of Crillon could be well treated off a mark of 105 on handicap debut. He is preferred to the likes of Glory, who is bound to improve for the step up in trip, and Thatbeatsbanagher, who probably needs much further but was a winner on his penultimate start. Others to note include Augharue, Le Grand Vert and Tokaramore.

Top Tip: FOLLOW YOUR ARROW (1)
