ATR VERDICT: ALAZWAR saw out the extended 1m well on his Flat race debut at Wolverhampton earlier in the month and, likely to improve for this step up in distance, he might be able to complete the double. Bakersboy (also engaged at Wolverhampton on Tuesday evening) has placed on his last couple of starts and is likely to be in the firing line again, while Scampi shouldn't be too far away either.

Top Tip: ALAZWAR (1)

ATR VERDICT: Forever Des Long escapes a penalty for breaking his duck over C&D last week and he is likely to be popular, but it may be worth taking a chance on WOLFSPEAR. When winning his sole bumper start, the Olly Murphy-trained six-year-old beat the now 147-rated hurdler First Street. He makes his handicap debut from a mark of 99 and though he has been soundly beaten in three starts over timber, he could prove to be nicely treated. Ashoka and Presenting Pete are others to consider for powerful stables.

Top Tip: WOLFSPEAR (4)

ATR VERDICT: RAINBOW MIRAGE has paid her way at this venue throughout the winter and registered her second victory in recent months when keeping her rivals at bay a few weeks ago. She been hit with just a 2lb rise for that display and can be relied upon to give her all again. Mark Rimell's mare may have most to fear from Always Dreaming, as long as she banishes her last-start no-show to the memory, although Miss Bella Brand could also play a part.

ATR VERDICT: ONE FOR YOU has been largely consistent in deeper contests than this, and Philip Hobbs' representative can get himself back into the winner's enclosure for the first time since landing this contest, off just a 1lb lower mark, 12 months ago. Thirtyfourstitches fell on his latest start, when seeking a Fakenham hat-trick, and should not be ruled out on this quick turnaround, while Winds Of Fire looks interesting on this return to hurdling.

ATR VERDICT: Alrehb atoned for costly losses on his first couple of starts for Kevin Philippart De Foy when digging deep at Wolverhampton and while the form is nothing special, there is certainly more to come from him. Even so, PINWHEEL is fancied to take the necessary step forward from his Kempton fourth, which was his first start since arriving from France and first taste of an artificial surface. Thapa VC's winning spree may have come to an end at the Sunbury circuit last time, but he didn't lose that much in defeat.

ATR VERDICT: A DISTANT PLACE finished second at Ludlow when returning from a short break last month and the step back up in trip might see Jonjo O'Neill's gelding progress on only his sixth outing over hurdles. Guernesey has been running consistently well all season, winning at Exeter and finishing second on no less than four occasions. He is expected to be in the mix along with The Street, who has improved since moving into handicap company, and Mackelduff.

ATR VERDICT: A gelding operation has been the making of GOLDEN SANDS and while he had to settle for a share of the spoils at long odds-on when attempting to complete a Wolverhampton brace, the other dead-heater then performed well in a warm conditions event so the form is better than it appeared at the time. Wynter Wildes starts his handicap career on the back of a Southwell success and heads a list of dangers that also includes Giewont and Melodramatica.

ATR VERDICT: HERITIER was an easy winner over C&D on his first outing over fences in the UK last week and the five-year-old is expected to be a tough nut to crack as he turns out under a 7lb penalty. Massini Man has finished second on his last three starts and is fancied to play a similar role on this occasion. Bempton Cliffs and Global Effect are feared most of the remainder.

He has been put up 4lb for that run but might be able to complete the double. Kakamora (also engaged to run at Uttoxeter on Tuesday) drops in class and should make his presence felt, while Master Work might prove best of the remainder.

Alberic commands respect in his bid for a hat-trick of victories along with Go All The Way, who makes his debut for Richard Newland.
