ATR VERDICT: Recent form suggests another big run can be expected from Pockley despite a 5lb rise for winning at Newcastle a fortnight ago, while Kim Wexler and Bethersden Boy can also go well. However, NEVER DARK, who is 10lb lower than his last winning mark, and 7lb better off with Pockley than last time out, looks a more attractive option and is worth chancing on these terms.

Top Tip: NEVER DARK (6)

Watch out for: POCKLEY (5)

ATR VERDICT: A slight drop in class can only help the top-weighted FAIRMAC, who, having been narrowly denied at Chelmsford, is fancied to make amends and go one better. Percy Jones finished first past the post at Brighton in August, beating the selection, but he was subsequently demoted having caused interference. He reappears in a first-time hood and ought to go close once again. Recent C&D scorers Peripeteia and Lady Percival can also have a say.

Top Tip: FAIRMAC (1)

Watch out for: PERCY JONES (2)

ATR VERDICT: BACCARAT BABY sets the standard having filled the runner-up spot on both of her career starts, and the daughter of Gleneagles ought to take all of the beating if running to a similar level. Wiltshire was perhaps unsuited by rain-softened ground when well supported ahead of his debut and he remains of interest despite a wide draw, while Calypso shaped with promise at Southwell last month and he merits a place on the shortlist too.

Top Tip: BACCARAT BABY (11)

Watch out for: WILTSHIRE (10)

ATR VERDICT: MOHATU made no impression when well supported ahead of his debut at Newcastle, but William Haggas' charge ought to have learned plenty for that experience and he could score at the second time of asking. Overactive is an interesting debutant for the Ralph Beckett team and he can go well along with Good Karma, who could be suited by the switch to a synthetic surface.

Top Tip: MOHATU (4)

Watch out for: OVERACTIVE (7)

ATR VERDICT: COURT OF SESSION gained his third success on the all-weather when winning at Chelmsford earlier in the month and a 5lb rise is unlikely to prevent another bold bid. Fellow last-time-out winner Excel Power could prove the chief threat on this drop in class if overcoming his wide draw. Spacer has been shaping like this extra distance could help and is another to note.

Top Tip: COURT OF SESSION (6)
Watch out for: EXCEL POWER (1)

ATR VERDICT: With questions marks surrounding the majority of the field, INEXPLICABLE rates the most solid proposition. He returns to the C&D of his last success and is now effectively 1lb lower than that win with Mark Winn now in the plate claiming a valuable 5lb. Vitesse Du Son has been running well of late in similar contests and is likely to be in the mix, while Waltzing Intime warrants closer inspection in the market on her first start for the Kevin Philippart De Foy stable.

Top Tip: INEXPLICABLE (1)

Watch out for: VITESSE DU SON (5)

ATR VERDICT: International Law has more on his plate after receiving a 5lb rise in the ratings for his win at Southwell last month, but is unlikely to be far away. Fellow C&D winner JENNY REN makes greater appeal after finishing a close third here 22 days ago, and compensation could await in this contest off the same mark. My Brother Jack has been running well across both codes and is likely to give them plenty to think about.

Top Tip: JENNY REN (2)
